Extended Health Benefits

If you have extended health through your employer, check with HR or your insurance plan to see whether your employer has paid for counselling benefits. Sometimes this is a separate, contracted service (Employee Assistance Program), other times you are covered for a particular counselling professional such as a Registered Social Worker (RSW or RCSW), Registered Clinical Counsellor (RCC) or a Registered Psychologist (R.Psych), whom you would hire privately. Be clear on who you're covered for if reimbursement is important to you! Typically, you would pay the therapist first and they give you a receipt for reimbursement through your extended health. A very limited amount of local, private therapists offer direct billing. I have written extensively counselling options, including third-party, employee assistance programs, private and subsidized, in the following article: <https://willowtreecounselling.ca/articles/am-i-covered-understanding-your-counselling-options/>

Use Of This List

If you know of a not-for-profit agency offering a professional, lower-cost counselling service that I have not included, please let me know and I will consider it for inclusion. As I am not able to go through each listing in detail on a quarterly basis, corrections to megan@willowtreecounselling.ca are most welcome.

As agencies change over time, please check with the above services to ensure accuracy of the information provided here. Note that many programs will have wait lists, or wait lists may be closed. You may wish to add yourself to several waiting lists to potentially increase the speed of you being able to access counselling.

Inclusion of the above resources does not indicate an endorsement of them or an affiliation with Willow Tree Counselling.

If you are in a position to donate to these worthwhile counselling programs, please consider doing so!

Please note that Willow Tree Counselling does not provide sliding scale or pro-bono counselling to new clients as current reduced-cost counselling spaces are full.
